

PASSPORT TO THE CARIBBEAN

the island of Haiti

Book your flight today to the Caribbean and the fascinating island of Haiti! In just five days learn a variety of art techniques and create art inspired by Haitian artisans as you work with artists from ArtStart. You won't want to miss this amazing adventure!

MONDAY-FRIDAY, APRIL 1-5, 2019 ❖ 8:30 AM-3:45 PM ❖ AGES 6-12

MORNING CLASSES ❖ 8:30-11:45 AM

METAL ARTS

Caribbean creatures come alive

Learn the art of metal craft creating creatures unique to the Caribbean like the gecko, sea turtle, and bull frog. Then using brightly colored paints just for metal, work with artist Gustavo Boada to paint your animals and marvel at how they magically seem to come alive!

DECORATIVE ARTS

papier mache bowls

The word papier mache is French and means "chewed up paper". Populated by the French, the beachside town of Jacmel, Haiti is one of the leading producers of papier-mâché art works. A popular papier mache art form is the bowl. Work with an artist to create your own papier mache bowl and paint it with the bright colors of the Caribbean.

AFTERNOON CLASSES ❖ 12:30-3:45 AM

CONSTRUCTION ARTS

tap tap art on the move

Buses and trucks are the main form of public transportation in Haiti. Many vehicles have colorful images of village and city life painted all over them. Called tap taps, people tap on the side of the vehicle to signal they need a ride. Work with an artist create your own version of a Tap Tap vehicle using cardboard, paint, mylars, and more.

DRAWING & PAINTING

An artist's Paradise

Learn about the wildlife of Haiti. Taking inspiration from this lush tropical island, work with artist Karen Anderson to create drawings, paintings, and prints of sea creatures like manatees and dolphins and land animals like the nearly extinct Hatian solenodon, and all different species of bats!
